

THE ENTREPRENEURIAL SOUNDING BOARD

Emily Campbell

ecampbell@campbellfirm.com

Emily Campbell, Esq. began her legal career in New York in 1992, working principally with major international law firms for almost a decade. In March 2002, she founded The Campbell Firm PLLC and is the Firm's Managing Member. Ms. Campbell has a general practice, with an emphasis on transactional and litigation matters, serving clients across a variety of industries, including, among others, Fashion, Entertainment, Technology, Consulting, Health Care and Real Estate. She has authored ten law review articles and two book chapters, including articles on copyright and first amendment law. Ms. Campbell is an Adjunct Professor at New York Law School, where she teaches Drafting Contracts. She serves as Chair of the Committee on National Security and Counter-Terrorism for the Federal Bar Association and as Vice-Chair of the prestigious Public Affairs Luncheon Series for the New York City Bar Association. Ms. Campbell received her B.A. from Mercer University and her J.D., M.A., and Ph.D. from the University of Nebraska. Ms. Campbell's practice includes significant work with entrepreneurs; she brings her personal entrepreneurial experience, including real estate investment, to her practice to facilitate practical solutions to legal challenges.